HUMAN RESOURCE MANUAL

DECEMBER 2024

...NOW

INTRODUCTION

Over the past years, Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) has significantly grown both programmatically and institutionally. We have the distinction of being the largest chapter of TI in the world implementing multi-dimensional and robust programs. This means that we are handling larger and newer resources, projects, staffs, partners and vendors. With this growth the policies and procedures related to Human Resource Management have required updating and amendments to ensure the high standards of transparency and accountability that TIB is known for, and is expected to be. Our main objective is to ensure that our Human Resource Management procedure and all actions, decisions and activities related to it represents high standard of efficiency and effectiveness.

What follows here is the amended, updated version and combination of TIB Human Resources Manual approved by the Board of Trustees of TIB at its 122nd meeting held on December 17, 2024. All relevant members of the staff at all levels and locations are expected to be conversant with the provisions of this manual and to fully comply with the same. The board and management hope that the policy will be fully enforced without any exception so that the underlying responsibility and accountability framework are strictly observed.

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION

1.1 Introduction

Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) is an independent, non-government, non-partisan and non-profit organization with a vision of Bangladesh in which government, politics, business, civil society and the daily lives of the people shall be free from corruption.

In the context of the international movement against corruption, TIB is the national chapter in Bangladesh of the Berlin-based Transparency International (TI), and accordingly, TIB partners and cooperates with TI and its chapters worldwide. However, TIB is not a subordinate body of TI.

TIB is committed to values of democracy, justice, rule of law, transparency, accountability, integrity and impartiality.

TIB's mission is to catalyze and strengthen a participatory social movement to promote and develop institutions, laws and practices for combating corruption in Bangladesh and establishing an efficient and transparent system of governance, politics and business. (Source: Governance Manual and Code of Ethics, TIB, 2016)

The present Human Resource Manual is based on the above vision, values and mission of TIB. It provides the framework of guiding principles and practices aimed at ensuring the highest standards of efficiency, integrity, accountability and transparency in managing TIB. The HR Manual is a living document, subject to amendment with the approval of the Board/Executive Director. Its practical value and importance lies in the availability of resources and commitment of TIB in applying these standards in its work.

Where the provisions of this HR Manual are inconsistent with the laws of the land or the Trust Deed of TIB, the provisions of law or Trust Deed, as applicable, shall, prevail over provisions contained herein.

The present manual presents the standard Human Resource Policies and Procedures of TIB. These procedures and rules shall apply to all employees of TIB subject to availability of resources. The provisions of this manual shall be applicable to project(s) provided financial implications are covered within the project(s) funds available from project and other approved sources. The Board of Trustees of TIB shall have the right to bring required and relevant changes in any of the provisions if necessary.

Copy of this manual will be maintained in English and can be translate in Bengali. Where a dispute arises, the English version shall prevail.

1.2 Responsibilities of the Employee and behavioral norms

1.2.1 Empowerment/Accountability TIB seeks to entrust its staff, particularly “frontline” staff who are closest to communities, with more autonomy and decision making power. Along with this decision making authority come greater accountability. This should be reflected in functions and organization of TIB.

1.2.2 Stewardship is defined as the responsible acquisition, deployment, and control of human, material, and financial resources. All employees are encouraged to identify how they can become a more effective stewards of TIB's resources, thus contributing to greater organizational cost-effectiveness. The concept of Stewardship will be reflected in performance evaluation of staff of all level.

1.2.3 TIB Staff members are expected to demonstrate transparent behavior in their work. In both internal and external relations, those who have access to information are expected to be open, sharing it freely and generously with other members, unless it is contrary to the interest of TIB.

1.2.4 Learning Environment All staffs are responsible for ensuring a workplace environment that is non-hierarchical and which allows everyone to perform to the best of their ability. On-the-job learning will be seen as a process that continues throughout an entire career. Constructive self-criticism, both individual and collective, will be encouraged as a means to deeper, more profound institutional learning.

1.2.5 Gender and Diversity The richness of diversity found in the socioeconomic and cultural environment of Bangladesh, encompassing gender, race, ethnicity, religion, age and disability will be reflected in our staff and partners at all levels. TIB will strive to understand how the particular condition of each individual or social group shape their ability to excel, creating tailored opportunities for each to thrive, consistent with TIB mission.

1.3 Purpose and applicability

1.3.1 The policies contained herein serve as guidelines for its employees in regard to implementation of human resources matters.

1.3.2 The manual guides management how to manage employees and what decision to make in a particular situation that affect them, and what decision to be made to bring out their best potentials.

1.3.3 All employees will be treated fairly and consistently. The policies shall apply equally for all irrespective of levels.

1.4 Professional Code of Conduct

1.4.1 Employees of TIB shall maintain highest standards of professional behavior and integrity at work.

1.4.2 No one is allowed individually or collectively to get involved in any action or behavior in such a way that may create a conflict between individual or group interest and that of the organization. Each will foster team work maintaining appropriate work place behavior.

1.4.3 All employees shall behave in such manner that promotes team spirits in a cohesive, congenial and mutually supportive work environment.

1.4.4 TIB shall strictly adhere to relevant policies, i.e. Code of Ethics, Policy on Sexual Harassment Complaint & Redress and Safeguarding Policy etc. to prevent and redress any act of harassment, persecution or discriminatory practice(s).

1.4.5 Any act of insubordination, negligence of duties and violation of Code of Ethics shall be viewed as seriously and will warrant strict disciplinary action.

1.4.6 The employees of the TIB shall not be engaged with any active partisan politics. They shall not be involved in any activity that can be detrimental to the interest of the organization or the country.

1.4.7 All employees shall deal with the colleagues at all levels, counterparts, associates and external entities including vendors honestly and diligently.

1.4.8 All will help create a healthy and safe work environment within the organization.

1.4.9 Each employee must safeguard all properties and assets including goodwill and image of the Organization.

2.6.1 When a position falls vacant in a division/unit due to departure of a staff or in case a new post is created in sync with Human Resource budget, the following provision shall apply:

- i. The vacancy announcement shall be circulated externally through newspaper (national and/or local, as applicable), internet advertisement and TIB's website, the reference of which shall be shared internally to facilitate applications by internal candidates.
- ii. Internal staff who are interested and who fulfil the requisite criteria must have prior approval of respective divisional/unit head.
- iii. In case suitable candidates are not found, vacancy announcement shall be made in the same process for the second time. If the second vacancy announcement also fails to ensure suitable candidates, head-hunt method can be adopted subject to confirmation of competence through written test/viva, as appropriate, in the due process.
- iv. Normally a minimum of two weeks' time shall be given for receiving applications from the candidates unless exceptionally determined by Executive Director/Deputy Executive Director. For short time contractual staff minimum one week shall be given for receiving application.

2.7 Short list of applications

2.7.1 HR Unit shall make a short list of all CVs through careful review and in consultation with Divisional Heads based on the organizational need, applicants' qualifications, skills, knowledge, experience and suitability for the position. A committee can be formed to shortlist the CV where necessary.

2.7.2 Final shortlisting should be done through the automated HRMS or by one staff at a higher level or by an external in case of technical positions as appropriate. For director ED/DED will conduct shortlisting, for DED, it will be done by ED, for ED, it will be done by incumbent ED in consultation with Board Chairperson.

Final shortlisting should be done by CCC recruitment committee for service staff at CCC level.

2.7.3 The Executive Director/Deputy Executive Director shall finally review and approve the list of candidates for interview.

2.7.4 In case of equally competent candidates and subject to the fulfillment of the requirements decided by the EMT) TIB shall give preference to its in-house candidates. However, in this case the employee's personal file, past performance record and results of annual evaluation shall be taken into consideration.

2.7.5 If any Division and/or any project have disproportionately less female staff, the TIB Management shall take possible affirmative actions to bring gender equality and equal representation.

2.7.6 The call for interview shall be communicated by email, SMS and phone at least 3 calendar days ahead of the interview date. The same shall apply in case of written tests.

2.8 Test/Interview and selection

TIB shall undertake any or all of the following tests or adapt any other appropriate devices in the selection process.

CHAPTER 4: TRAINING, STAFF DEVELOPMENT AND INTERNSHIP

4.1 Objective

TIB encourages and supports employee training and development opportunities within available resources. The intent is to enhance employee's technical skills specific to the requirement of TIB and prepare them to shoulder higher responsibilities and take challenges ahead.

The main objective of training is to make sure that employees job related knowledge is enhanced and they can perform their job better. Employee training is also viewed as a means for improving morale and confidence.

4.2 Basic Principles

4.2.1 Training as shared responsibility: Employee training and development is viewed as a shared responsibility. Both the concerned employee and her/his line manager will discuss and go through different aspects of training before a decision is taken.

4.2.2 Need based and result oriented: Employee training and development must have relevance to specific position needs and her/his future career prospect. It should be result oriented in the sense that employees, after return from training will use their learning for the better performance in the organization.

4.2.3 Budget: All training should have prior budget provisions and it should be cost effective. Training plan should consider available financial resources for employee development.

4.2.4 Funded training Programmes can be availed provided these are consistent with above.

4.2.5 Training: Sponsored by TIB or external stakeholder

- a. If the cost of training borne by TIB or sponsored by others on behalf of TIB exceeds BDT 200,000 including but not limited to travel expenses, training fees, per diem/out-of-pocket expenses (if applicable), lodging, visa fees, health insurance, etc., the employee must sign a bond committing to serve TIB for a period of 1 year upon completion of the training.
- b. If the total cost of training exceeds BDT 500,000, the employee must sign a bond committing to serve TIB for a period of 2 years upon completion of the training.
- c. If actual costs are not available or are undetermined, TIB reserves the right to estimate and determine the bond amount and period.
- d. If an employee departs from TIB during the period as outlined in the bond agreement, the bond amount related to the training programme shall be recovered in full. This shall apply in respect of all of the above.

4.3 Responsibility

4.3.1 Employee: Employee can identify her/his training needs and opportunities in line with his/her job responsibilities and career goals with TIB.

4.3.2 Supervisor: Line Managers are responsible for assessing the training needs and identifying appropriate training opportunity. This shall be done through strengths, weakness and performance review of the employee as per need of TIB. Supervisor/Line Managers shall have the responsibility for new recruits/transferred/promoted employee(s) on-the-job training.

4.3.3 Training and HR Unit: The training unit is responsible for providing information and necessary support in regard to need based training activity. It is also the responsibility of HR Department to coordinate with in-country and overseas training institutes and resource persons in regard to exploring training opportunities. Every effort will be made to make training cost-effective and job-oriented. Such exercise shall lead to an annual training plan consistent with the plan of action for the respective project cycle of TIB.

4.3.4 Organization: TIB will give support to employees with necessary information and financial support. Executive Director and Training unit will help supervisors to conduct training need assessment.

4.4 Type of Training

Both in-country and outside training will be organized according to identified priority needs. TIB encourages on the job training, as well as employee's job-related skill, management and leadership development training which are of general nature. All training request will be coordinated by Training unit once the training nomination form is initiated by respective division and approved duly. With the support of Training unit and Finance & Administration Division, HR unit will ensure necessary indemnity bond between the employees and TIB for long duration/costly training.

4.5 Evaluation

4.5.1 Reporting: Every employee having attended any training shall be under obligation to submit a written report/ presentation stating inter alia applicability of the training in TIB.

4.5.2 TIB expects that all employees who receive training utilize learning of training Programmes at the work place. It is the responsibility of respective supervisors to evaluate training outcome or impact. Whether employee's job performance has improved or not will be assessed by using proper evaluating tools. Training unit will facilitate in the evaluation process.

4.6 Induction and Orientation

4.6.1 Induction means an introduction of a newly joined employee to his or her job as well as to the organization.

4.6.2 Due emphasis will be given to inform the employee about her or his job, the employment conditions, and the surroundings on the first week, preferably on the first day of joining of a new employee. The objectives of induction are to welcome the incumbent, orient about the organization and to make her/him feel that s/he is part of the organization.

4.6.3 The Human Resources unit will arrange preliminary induction session on the terms of employment, TIB's compensation and benefits package, personnel policies and procedures in general.

4.6.4 The new employee will be provided with the required information about the organization's rules and regulations that might affect her/him. The organization's history, philosophy, core values, vision, goals and objective, Programme objectives, Programme coverage etc. will also be briefed in a befitting manner.

4.6.5 The supervisor will introduce the incumbent with the co-workers, explain her/his job responsibilities, show her/his in and around, explain any additional privilege and share as much information that the new employee might need.

4.6.6 It is the responsibility of the immediate supervisor to ensure that the newly joined staffs are oriented on both matters relating to individual projects/units as well as on the general issues.

4.7 Career planning for the staff: "The longest journey begins with the first step"

The HR and Training unit shall explore and support the career development initiatives of the employee for various units/division and assist to implement it properly. This shall be in consultation with line managers and employees.

4.8 TIB Internship

TIB's Internship Programme is aimed at facilitating exposure, awareness and sensitization of the Interns to the key issues and challenges in the areas of TIB's work, and to TIB's approach and Programmes in addressing the same. TIB Internship is also designed as a learning opportunity for would-be professionals on specific aspects of TIB's on-going activities such as research, grassroots level citizens' engagement, advocacy & campaign and organizational effectiveness.

4.8.1 TIB Intern

A learner – usually a post-graduate student - who is granted an affiliation with TIB for hands-on experience of work for a limited period with no salaries or benefits other than the allowance indicated hereinafter is called TIB Intern. The Internship in TIB may or may not be related to a Degree Programme that the Intern may be enrolled in at the time of Internship.

4.8.2 Qualification

Members of the regular contractual staff, short-term staff and interns of TIB will be entitled to Accrued Compensatory Leave (ACL) for working during weekends or holidays to meet authorized deadlines under the following terms & conditions.

5.6.6.1 Approval to work on weekend or holiday and approval of the accrual of ACL will be given by the supervisor at the level of Area Coordinator in consultation along Coordinator in the Field Offices and Supervisor in consultation along Unit/Divisional Head in the Head Office.

5.6.6.2 To be entitled for an ACL, an application for approval to work at weekend/holiday should provide the following information:

- a. Specific work/target to be completed, number of hours needed and the deadline;
- b. Evidence of consistency with the work plan; and
- c. Credible explanation of why work is indispensable on a weekend/holiday.

5.6.6.3 Except as provided in clause 4 below ACL can be claimed for a half day or full day only when an employee had to work for a minimum of 4 hours or 8 hours, respectively, on a week-end or a holiday. The maximum number of ACL for a head office based employee under this category will be no more than 10 days per year.

5.6.6.4 (a) The minimum requirement of 8 hours work for a day's ACL can be relaxed for a field-based employee who is required to work routinely at weekends/holidays throughout the year. The field-based employees will be entitled to a maximum of 15 days ACL per year. However, for the field-based staff not requiring to work on weekend/holidays clause 5.5.6.3 will be applicable for ACL.

5.6.6.4 (b) Short-term staff and interns, whether based at the Head office or in the field, are entitled to up to 5 days of ACL for a six-month contract period. If a staff member is required to work beyond the allotted 5 days during holidays or weekends, they will be compensated with one day's equivalent salary for each full day worked and half a day's equivalent salary for each half day worked.

5.6.6.5 Working extra hours on a regular working day and/or short-time work at weekends and holidays will not justify ACL.

5.6.6.6. ACL must be availed/utilized within 3 months of accrual, following which any outstanding ACL will be lapsed. No more than 3 days of ACL can be taken at a time, which can, however, be taken in combination with other categories of authorized leave.

5.6.6.7 ACL cannot be encashed. ACL and overtime cannot be claimed together.

5.6.6.8 ACL will not be applicable in staff capacity building, e.g. training, workshop or seminar within or outside the country.

5.6.6.9 ACL will accrue for attending in-country Seminar, workshop, staff meeting etc which are organized by TIB as a part of project implementation or by its partners and are attended by invitation or nomination.

5.6.7 Rest and Recreation Leave

- i. After every three years of service (without break), a confirmed employee shall be entitled to have 15 calendar days Rest and Recreation leave. No allowance other than regular salary and benefits shall be applicable for such leave. A staff shall enjoy this leave within one year of entitlement.
- ii. Rest and Recreation Leave cannot be combined with any other leave but can be combined with weekend and holidays.

5.6.8 Quarantine Leave

An employee who has acquired an infectious disease and needs to stay away from office for safety of his colleagues will be entitled to quarantine leave up to a maximum of 3 continuous days (including holidays/weekend) for conjunctivitis, and 14 continuous days (including holidays/weekend) for other diseases on the recommendation of the physician. If an employee needs additional leave on this account, such additional leave will be charged to casual or earned leave. For the purpose of this clause infectious diseases will include pox, diphtheria, measles, mumps, jaundice, TB etc.

5.6.9 Study Leave

Study leave is granted to staff who, on his/her own initiative, secures funds for studying for a specified period in an area which is considered relevant to his/her work in TIB. A regular member of staff having served TIB for 3 years or more may be allowed leave to pursue higher study at own arrangement having no cost involvement of the organization. Maximum of two years of such leave may be approved by the Executive Director on recommendation of the concerned Director provided the proposed study is considered beneficial to the organization. TIB does not pay any salary or benefits for the period of leave.

5. 6.9.1 The study leave will be subject to the following rules:

- a. The period of leave shall be up to a maximum of 24 months. In exceptional cases, the Executive Director may extend the leave by a month.
- b. The leave will be without pay, that is, the staff on leave will not receive any salary or benefit for the leave period
- c. Festival allowance: The staff will be entitled to festival allowance on pro rata basis for the portion of the year (January -December) he/she served before going on leave.
- d. If the staff so desires, he/she may continue his/her PF membership without disruption by depositing both employer and employee's contribution.
- e. The salary of the staff will freeze at the grade and step he/she was on the day before commencement of the leave.
- f. TIB reserve the right to terminate the employee for cause following relevant HR Policy during or after the study leave. In case of separation before serving the required period, the provision at 2 (d) below will apply.
- g. Staff will be exempted from the requirement of serving TIB only if the position is abolished due to restructuring of the organization/ project.
- h. Staff have no option of taking intermittent leave for studies at home or abroad.

5. 6.9.2 Upon return from study leave the salary and benefits of a staff will be as follows:

- a. The staff will receive salary in the same grade and step as s/he received on the day immediately preceding the day of leave commencement.

b. For the purpose of fixing the next increment date of the staff, the period of leave will be considered as period of service break. Accordingly, next increment of the staff will be on the date calculated by adding the days of study leave (= period of service break) to the date on which he/she would have got increment if he/she had not been on leave. [Example: a staff proceeds on leave on 14 October 2012 and resumes duty after leave on 15 July 2013. Had he/she not been on leave the staff would have earned an increment on 01 April 2013. The staff's next revised increment date (instead of 01 April 2013) will be on 31 December 2013 calculated as follows:

Increment date if the staff had not been on leave (a)		01 April 2013
Date leave commences (b)	14 October 2012
Date of rejoining after leave	15 July 2013
Days of leave (d=c-b+1)		274 days
Next increment date (e=a+d)		31 Dec 2013

c. The staff will get festival allowance on pro rata basis for the portion of the year (April-March) he serves after his/her joining after leave. [This is in conformity with Festival allowance policy according to which a staff on leave without pay for more than a month will get the allowance on pro rata basis.]

d. An employee who is granted Study Leave shall be required to serve TIB on his/her return from the study leave a period equivalent to that of such leave or pay gross salary in lieu on pro-rata basis against any period for which she/he fails to serve. In case an employee resigns before returning from study leave she/he will be under obligation to pay to TIB an amount equivalent to gross salary for the period of study leave availed.

e. For the purpose of gratuity, a period of less than six months' leave will be ignored, that is, benefit will accrue as if he/she had been in service during the period of leave while Leave of six months or more will be treated as break of service for one year and thereby reducing total service life by one year. [This is in alignment with the gratuity policy that broken service of less than six months is ignored and service of six months and above is rounded off to one year.]

5. 6.9.3 Maximum number of study leaves at a time:

- At any point of time the maximum number of TIB staff who may be granted study leave shall not be more than 4 (four)
- No division shall have more than two (02) staff on study leave at a time; no unit shall grant study leave to more than one (01) staff at a time.
- No member of the staff will be granted study leave more than once in a period of 05 years

5.6.10 Leave on account of accident/long sickness

For long sicknesses of more than 14 days or injury due to an accident, a regular staff will be entitled to leave with pay for a maximum of one month in a calendar year, including hospitalisation, if applicable. Such leave in both cases, intermittently or at a stretch, will be subject to proper documentation from a registered doctor/hospital.

5.6.11 Leave on Account of Miscarriage/Abortion

A female staff having her pregnancy terminated through miscarriage/ abortion will be entitled up to one month's leave with pay subject to doctor's recommendation. This leave will not be available for a staff who had two live children before such accident took place.

5.6.12 Leave on account of giving birth to a still Child

A female staff giving birth to a still child will be entitled to leave with pay (i) for the days she enjoyed maternity leave before the child birth, and (ii) for up to two months after the child birth subject to the recommendation of the physician. This leave will not be available for a staff who had two live children before such accident took place.

5.7 General Procedure of Applying for and Availing of Leave

- i) An employee who desires leave shall apply to the competent authority through proper channel where applicable in the HRMS while on leave.
- ii) For any planned leave an employee shall normally apply one week in advance. In case of sickness or emergency the approval shall be obtained afterward but intimation is required.
- iii) Application for extension of leave shall be submitted by the employee to the competent authority before the expiry of the granted leave.
- iv) An employee who remains absent for any period in excess of sanctioned leave without approval or intimation shall be liable to disciplinary action.
- v) For calculation of leave, salary for deduction or payment purpose the standard working days in a month will be considered 30 days for those staff.

CHAPTER 6: PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

6.1 Principles

An assessment of employee's performances will be made once in a year by using standard tools and procedures.

Performance appraisal should give both supervisor and employee an opportunity to establish two-way communication against mutual expectations on job performance. It should help supervisors and the supervised to identify and provide feedback to each other. Feedback may be given in order to:

- o Remove performance gaps.
- o Improve further for future growth and challenges, and
- o Recognize and appreciate superior performance.

For new staff initial assessment shall be done on completion of her/his probation period. In case of transfer, supervisor shall assess the performance of her/his supervisees and send it to the HR unit, which shall send it to the new supervisor after due consideration.

6.2 Performance management process

Supervisors should consider that performance management is not an annual event rather it is year round activity. The process looks at the following important steps:

6.2.1 Determine, agree and share what is expected from the employee in terms of accomplishment of objectives and job performances in this context of his/her job description. This is usually set at the beginning of a performance year.

6.2.2 Sit together with employee to review and monitor the progress level of objectives or job performances and revise objectives if situation demands so. The period of such review may be a month for a poor to average performer, while longer period say 3 months may be needed for better performer. This review session may be formal or informal depending on circumstances. However, supervisor and the supervised employee should take notes on the outcome that may be used for future reference.

6.2.3 Complete annual appraisal in a formal way by using prescribed format and guidelines. The appraisal focuses on the following aspects:

- a) Evaluate to what extent and how an employee has completed assigned duties and responsibilities as well as pre-determined targets within a specified time frame. In this context the aptitude of the employee shall be given due consideration.
- b) Identify what should happen in future so that the individual can perform better and set a work plan for future for personal and professional development and better contribute to the achievement of organizational goals.
- c) How to recognize superior performance so as to motivate the employee.

6.3. Performance rating

While evaluating employee performances, the following categories will be applied:

Score	Result
1 to 50	Unsatisfactory
51 to below 71	Moderate
71 to below 86	Meets Requirements

86 to below 96
96 to 100

Exceeds Requirements
High Achiever (Recognition)

6.4. What to evaluate and who

6.4.1 Supervisor's evaluation: Supervisor will evaluate employee's overall job performances considering the following:

1. Performance according to assigned job
2. Professional, Interpersonal, Leadership and General Conduct

6.4.2 Self-evaluation: If the employee disagrees with the rating of supervisor, self-evaluation will be required. Following will be considered:

1. Performance according to assigned job
2. Professional, Interpersonal, Leadership and General Conduct

6.4.3 Evaluation by supervisee/junior (applicable for staff members of grade V and above): The supervisee/junior shall evaluate his/her supervisor considering the following:

1. Supervision and decision-making
2. Cooperation and coordination. Provided cooperation and assistance in all circumstances.
3. Interpersonal relationship and team building

6.4.4 Peer evaluation: It shall be done considering the following:

1. Cooperation and coordination in carrying out each other's responsibilities
2. Nature of interpersonal relationship and team building
3. Overall attitude and behavior

6.5 Appraisal Form and Timeline

6.5.1 Separate appraisal forms shall be used for supervisor, self, supervisee/junior and peer evaluation.

6.5.2 The duration of appraisal period is usually one year (January-December), however, considering the need as recommended by respective Director/Divisional Head and approved by Executive Director, appraisal may be conducted in six month's or any other period. Usually performance appraisal exercise will be carried out in the 12th month of project financial year. However, the staff members who joined in TIB on or before 1st July of the year and successfully completed the probationary period by 31st December of the year will be evaluated through annual performance appraisal process.

6.5.3 All confirmed employees are subject to annual appraisal process.

6.6 Time period for Performance Appraisal Submission

6.6.1 Appraisal must be completed and shall submit to HR&OD unit within the stipulated time/date to be determined by EMT.

6.6.2 It shall be the responsibility of the assessee to initiate the appraisal process. Assessor shall be duty bound to complete the assessment within the stipulated time. If anyone fails to submit within stipulated time, 25% of Basic Salary deduction for a month will be applicable regarding violation of TIB compliance.

6.7 Performance Appraisal disagreement handling

6.7.1 If there is any disagreement between the assessor and the assessee (below the level of the Directors) in respect of scores or comments in the Performance Appraisal, the assessment shall be forwarded to the Director/Coordinator/EMT as appropriate for settlement.

6.8 Appraisal Outcome

6.8.1 Annual increment of pay is not awarded automatically; it will be linked with performance.

6.8.2 TIB management will decide what action will be taken in terms of salary rise following annual appraisal. Approval of salary rise will depend on budget and other pertinent factors. However, as a general guide, the following steps may be considered:

Result	Increment/s
Unsatisfactory	No Increment
Moderate	Half Increment
Meets Requirements	One Increment
Exceeds Requirements	One & Half Increment
High Achiever	One & Half Increment plus Recognition

6.9 Appraisal Copy

Appraisal record shall be preserved in the employee's personal file, and maintained by the HR unit to which supervisors shall access.

6.10 Special Reward for Outstanding Performance

An employee shall be awarded special reward for his/her outstanding performance as approved by the Executive Director in consultation with the Board of Trustees.

(a) Training: High performers may be selected for local or international training

(b) Appreciation Letter: Issuing appreciation letter shall be considered as another form of non-financial incentive. Such letter shall be issued by Executive Director for levels I – IX and X upwards by the Board.

(c) International Visit: High performers may also be nominated, if available, for attending international relevant workshop.

CHAPTER 7: DISCIPLINARY ACTION AND SEPARATION

7.1 Objective

Disciplinary action is warrant for misconduct, violation of code of Ethics and the activities detriment to the interest of the organization. Disciplinary actions are not intended and should not be used to alienate the employee from the organization.

7.1.1 Whenever disciplinary action is required; it is important that the penalty imposed be commenced with the offence.

7.1.2 When the disciplinary action is warranted the employee may be subject to the following actions, subject to due praise in issuing show leave notice and inquiry if considered necessary.

- i) Verbal Advice: Supervisor may advise the employee concerned verbally for not committing such offence in future.
- ii) Written Warning: A warning letter may be issued to an employee for an offense (misconduct) which does not warrant dismissal.

7.1.3 The employee shall be issued a confidential letter describing the offence and warning that repetition of such offence shall bring dismissal.

7.1.4 Warning letter shall be issued by the ED/DED which shall be preceded by show cause notice.

7.2 Termination

7.2.1 TIB may terminate service contract of any member of the regular staff/confirmed staff at any time without showing any reason subject to a notice period of 120 days or payment of 120 days (equivalent 4 months) basic salary in lieu of notice period. During the probation period such termination is subject to 7 days' notice or payment of 7 days' basic salary in lieu of notice period. This benefit will be given before the expiry of the fifteenth working day from termination date.

7.2.2 Although TIB is not bound to state any reason in the termination letter but sufficient ground should be recorded in a separate termination file to be kept in the custody of HR as a confidential document.

7.2.3 The terminated employee will receive admissible dues at separation.

7.2.4 Termination letter will be issued by the Executive Director.

7.3 Termination Benefits

The terminated employee (confirmed) shall be entitled to the following benefits:

- i. Unpaid salary and allowances up to the last day of work;

Annexure 1: Code of Ethics

Adopted 23.02.05

CODE OF ETHICS

I. Introduction

1.1. Transparency International Bangladesh (hereinafter “TIB”) is an independent, non-government, non-partisan and non-profit organization with a vision of Bangladesh in which government, politics, business, civil society and the daily lives of the people shall be free from corruption.

1.2. In the context of the international movement against corruption, TIB is the national chapter in Bangladesh of the Berlin-based Transparency International (TI), and accordingly, TIB partners and cooperates with TI and its chapters worldwide.

1.3. TIB is committed to values of democracy, justice, rule of law, transparency, accountability, integrity and impartiality.

1.4. TIB’s mission is to catalyze and strengthen a participatory social movement to promote and develop institutions, laws and practices for combating corruption in Bangladesh and establishing an efficient and transparent system of governance, politics and business.

1.4. This Code of Ethics is based on the above vision, values and mission of TIB. It provides the framework of guiding principles and practices aimed at ensuring highest standards of integrity and transparency in the work of TIB. The Manual is a living document. Its practical value and importance lies in the ability and commitment of everyone involved with TIB – members of the Board of Trustees, staff members, Committees of Concerned Citizens, Volunteers - in applying these codes in their work.

II. Guiding Principles

- i. We commit ourselves to working individually and collectively with all stakeholders to catalyze and strengthen a social movement for a Bangladesh in which government, politics, business, civil society and the daily lives of the people would be free of corruption;

- ii. We hate and condemn corruption and bribery, and undertake to refrain from the same. We also commit to fight corruption vigorously and courageously wherever it has been reliably identified. We do so without any fear or favour.
- iii. We undertake to be open, honest and accountable in our relationships with everyone we work with and with each other in TIB and beyond. We endeavour to our fullest capacity to perform our duties and fulfill our commitments honestly, faithfully and efficiently.
- iv. We are committed to be politically non-partisan, and fully independent in our judgment and approach.
- v. We have highest regards and commitment to core values of democracy, pluralism, fundamental human rights, justice, and rule of law. We firmly believe that corruption and bribery erode these values – weaken democracy and democratic institutions; deprive citizens of basic human rights; breed injustice; undermine rule of law; increases poverty and social conflict. Corruption and bribery also undermine economic development; distorts market and fair competition, increases exploitation; prevents good governance, accountability and transparency; and creates social and political instability and insecurity. It is our moral as well as professional commitment and responsibility to fight corruption.
- vi. Our struggle is against corruption and its power-base and network. We do not take any a priori position for or against any particular institution per se - private or public - be that government or any department thereof. We want to, and we will help and strengthen government and other efforts to establish a corruption free society. Our goal is to expand the anti-corruption constituency in Bangladesh and to serve the interest of everyone who wants to see a corruption-free Bangladesh.
- vii. We strive to take positions that are based on sound, objective, dispassionate and fully professional analysis and high and sound standards of research.
- viii. We commit to providing accurate and timely reports of our activities to our stakeholders, provide freest possible public access to whatever information we have through our reports, publications and other forms of communication including our website.
- ix. In our personnel and recruitment policies we will strive for balanced and diverse representation of everyone and every sections of the society irrespective of age, gender, faith and identity.

- x. We will accept only such funding that does not in any manner compromise our ability to address issues freely, independently, thoroughly and objectively free from any form of interference or influence.

III As National Chapter of Transparency International

- i. As the national chapter in Bangladesh of the Berlin-based Transparency International (TI) we are committed to work in collaboration with TI-Secretariat and other national chapters in fulfilling our shared vision of a world where governments, politics, business, civil society and the daily lives of the peoples are free of corruption.
- ii. We will actively participate in all relevant initiatives taken by TI-Secretariat and other chapters as and when appropriate and possible, and extend all possible cooperation to each other in the interest of the worldwide movement against corruption.
- iii. We will keep TI-Secretariat and our chapter colleagues informed of our work, and endeavour to respond to all requests from TI-Secretariat and other national chapters fairly, fully and expeditiously.

IV. Staff Relations

- i. We will treat each other with respect, recognition and consideration, with special emphasis on gender equality and equality of each other irrespective of faith, identity, status, professional category and any other criteria.
- ii. We will communicate and consult with each other openly, honestly and collegially and in a manner that assists each of us to fulfill our duties and responsibilities faithfully, efficiently and with commitment.
- iii. We will respect the privacy and private lives of our colleagues when dealing with personal information.
- iv. We are committed to ensure fullest possible participation of all staff members irrespective of status and position in planning and implementation of our work.
- v. We undertake to ensure adequate consultation with any staff member before making any decision that may impact upon that staff member.

V. Member Relations

- i. We are committed to consider members of TIB as a key source of strength and support of TIB. We will do everything possible to facilitate suitable participation of members in TIB work. It is our commitment to create conditions in which members will develop stronger sense of ownership of TIB and its programs.

- ii. We will keep TIB members informed of our work, and endeavour to respond to all requests and questions from them fairly, fully and expeditiously.

VI. Conflict of Interest

- i. In our work conflict may arise between our personal and/or group interests and the interests of TIB. We will disclose and discuss such conflict and resolve in a transparent manner, in the interest of TIB and the cause of anti-corruption movement.
- ii. We are committed to fair, objective and impartial recruitment, hiring and procurement policies. All appointments will be made on merit basis and only after due consideration of all applications received following internal and external announcements. All promotions, salary increments and other benefits of the members of the staff will be based on evaluation of performance on the basis of transparent and pre-informed criteria.
- iii. We resolve that family members, and friends and organizations with which we or our families or friends are associated, will not be accorded preferential treatment in recruitment hiring and procurement.
- iv. We will not hire or contract with members of our immediate family, i.e., a spouse, parent, child, or sibling without specific authorization through an unanimous decision of the Board.
- v. Should conflict of interest arise between personal or any other interests and that of TIB, we shall disclose such conflict fully and transparently, and in the interest of TIB shall accept any decision taken by the authority to resolve the same.

VII. Gifts and Entertainment

- i. We will avoid giving or accepting gifts, favours and gratitudes in connection with official duties.
- ii. We will not accept directly or indirectly any discount, gift, entertainment, or favours that may influence or perceived to influence the exercise of our function or the performance of our duties or our judgment.
- iii. All gifts will be reported to the supervising officer and recorded on a document that is available to all TIB staff.

VIII. Extra-TIB Activities

- i. We will not engage in any activity or transaction or acquire any position or function, whether paid or unpaid, that is incompatible with or detracts from the proper performance of our duties, and that may bring TIB as a whole into disrepute.

- ii. We will so arrange our private affairs as not to engage in any activity that might impair the credibility of TIB by giving the impression that TIB is fostering individuals, public or private institutions whose behaviour is perceived as not being in accordance with TIB's values.
- iii. We will not use TIB's business relationships to solicit or obtain favours or improper benefits in private life.
- iv. We will not allow our political beliefs, affiliations and/or activities to unduly influence or interfere with the political neutrality that is the hallmark of TIB.
- v. We will not allow our actions and decisions in the course of our work to be improperly influenced by the prospect of future employment with others or any other future material interest.

IX. Confidentiality and Transparency

- i. We will treat information obtained in the service of TI with confidentiality, when its nature calls for it or when this is explicitly requested, and will not use any such information or materials to further a private interest. We undertake to remain faithful to this commitment after our separation from TIB.
- ii. We will be as open as possible about all decisions and actions we take, taking into account the above mentioned needs for confidentiality.

X. Financial Independence and Transparency

- i. We will not accept funds that might impair the independence of TIB to pursue its goals. We will accept funds only from donors who share our anti-corruption values and goals. We will seek to diversify sources of our funding and to develop capacities for self-reliance.
- ii. We will not accept resources granted under condition or structured such that TIB refrains from independent action; pursues activities inconsistent with its mission, or refrains from pursuing activities consistent with its mission.
- iii. We will provide and publish audited financial statements in easily accessible form.
- iv. We will publish annually our sources of funds and account accurately and promptly to all donors in accordance with the terms of their grants.

XI. Implementation and Amendment

- i. This Code of Ethics shall be effective from 23 February 2005 and made available to all concerned with TIB – all Board members, all members of the staff, all CCC members and volunteers. It should be available for everyone in printed form as well as on TIB Website.

- ii. The Board and management will actively encourage regular internal dialogues on ethic, provide guidance for staff and ensure that internal systems, policies and procedures are consistent with this Code.
- iii. The Code of Ethics will be annexed to all contracts of appointment and signed along with it.
- iv. There will be periodic, at least an annual, review of compliance with the Code and evaluation of its impact on the culture of integrity in TIB. Review can also take place at the request of any Board member, staff member or any other stakeholder. The review will be conducted by Ethics Subcommittee of the Board and/or by Ethics Committee of the staff. Besides evaluation and suitable corrective measures that may range from training, consultations and advice through disciplinary action, the reviews will recommend amendments to the Code which shall be discussed with all stakeholders, and must be approved by the Board of Trustees of TIB.

Certified that this is the original copy of the Code of Ethics of Transparency International Bangladesh, adopted by the Board of Trustees on 23 February 2005.

Samson H. Chowdhury
Chairman, Board of Trustees
